HOLDING REDLICH

This course will focus on the fundamental issues surrounding the NSW Building and Construction Industry Security of Payment Act 1999 (BCISPA). The training will explain your rights, obligations and liabilities in respect to payment claims, payment schedules, adjudication applications, adjudication responses and adjudication determinations.

Trainers

Christine Jones | Partner | Holding Redlich

Christine is a partner in the Sydney office of our construction and infrastructure team with more than 20 years experience in construction disputes and claims involving the security of payment legislation across all asset classes, from civil construction, commercial construction to significant infrastructure disputes. She has successfully acted on behalf of both claimant's and respondents during this time ensuring that her experience is relevant irrespective of which side of the dispute you may be on.

Helena Golovanoff | Partner | Holding Redlich

Helena is a partner in the Construction and Infrastructure group. With over 15 years' experience in large scale construction and commercial disputes throughout Australia, She acts for claimants and respondents in connection with adjudications under the Building and Construction Industry Security of Payment Act 1999 (NSW). She provides dispute resolution, transaction and advisory services with expertise in complex negotiations and contract structuring, including drafting and negotiating development agreements, design and construction contracts, project delivery agreements, early contractor involvement agreements and consultancy agreements.

Russell Welsh | Director | ABC DRS

Russell is a Chartered Quantity Surveyor who has worked in the construction industry in the UK, Saudi Arabia, Korea and Australia for more than 30 years. Russell is also an adjudicator in all Australian jurisdictions with security of payment legislation.
